

Latinos in Action

Application Form (2019-2020)

As a Bilingual student at Rocky Mountain Middle School, you will work at an elementary school helping children who are learning English and Spanish as a Second Language. You will tutor younger kids in reading and math to help them succeed and model responsibility, caring and hard work. In this class, you will develop leadership and mentoring skills, job skills, and college preparation skills. You will complete service projects, and participate in cultural activities, and make a difference in someone's life!

You need to have at least a 2.0 GPA to enroll in this class. It is expected that you maintain a 2.0 GPA as a minimum, and act as a Leader in the school. It is expected that LIA students are models of exemplary behavior and follow school wide expectations, including maintaining VERY FEW TARDIES.

You will need to get a teacher recommendation and have a possible interview with Ms. Sayer. Please give the recommendation form to your teacher. Then your teacher will need to turn this application into the Counselors' Office. Students will receive Elective Credit for this class. Latinos in Action is a full year class.
